If You Paid Overdraft Fees to Comerica Bank,
You May Be Eligible for a Payment from a Class Action Settlement.

A $14,580,000 Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit about the order in which Comerica Bank posted Debit Card Transactions to consumer deposit accounts, and the effect the posting order had on the number of Overdraft Fees the bank charged its account holders. Comerica Bank maintains there was nothing wrong about the posting process it used. The Court has not decided which side is right.

Who's Included? Comerica Bank's records show you are a member of the Settlement Class. The Class includes holders of a Comerica Bank Account who, during the Class Period applicable to the state in which the Account was opened, incurred one or more Overdraft Fees as a result of Comerica Bank's High-to-Low Posting. The Class Periods by state are:

- For accounts opened in Arizona, from February 18, 2004 through August 15, 2010;
- For accounts opened in California, from February 18, 2006 through August 15, 2010;
- For accounts opened in Florida, from February 18, 2005 through August 15, 2010;
- For accounts opened in Michigan, from February 18, 2004 through August 15, 2010; and
- For accounts opened in Texas, from February 18, 2006 through August 15, 2010.

What Are the Settlement Terms? Comerica Bank has established a Settlement Fund of $14,580,000. If you are entitled to receive a cash benefit, and if the Court approves the Settlement, you will automatically receive a payment or account credit for eligible overdraft fees paid during the period covered by the Settlement. Individual payments cannot be determined at this time.

Your Rights May Be Affected. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must exclude yourself by Month DD, 201_. If you stay in the Settlement Class, you may object by Mont DD, 201_. The Court has scheduled a hearing on Month DD, 201_ to consider whether to approve the Settlement, a request for attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement Fund, plus expenses, and service awards to the Class Representatives. You may appear at the hearing, but you are not required to attend. You may hire your own attorney, at your own expense, to appear or speak for you at the hearing, but you do not have to. For detailed information on how to exclude yourself from or object to the Settlement, call or visit the website.
